Many thanks to Banbury Harriers for providing a really excellent new course for the opening round of the series. It is certainly an ideal venue and the varying terrain and stretches of deep mud made it a true test of cross-country running. It was good to see the new member clubs - Woodstock Harriers and Cirencester A C showing well in some of the races.

Please note the change of venue for Round 2 on Sunday 6 December - CROWN FARM, ASCOTT-UNDER-WYCHWOOD. Full directions and details are enclosed with this result sheet. This an exciting and spectacular new course which is used as a commercial enterprise for riding out of steeplechase horses. Host club, Witney Roadrunners, are seeking to offset the cost and have to charge a car park fee of 50p. We are sure that you have no objection.

Found at Round 1 Banbury
 (a) Size 6 Pink Reebok running shoes
 (b) Shell suit trousers - Oxford City colours - extra small.
