OXFORD

cross country league

The early morning rain cleared to give sunny, spring-like conditions, and left the Ardington course in superb underfoot condition, slightly soft with no sticky mud. The warm fresh westerly wind only took its toll up the incline from the stream near the finish. The junior fields were somewhat depleted as a result of athletes being called away to the Sports Hall finals, and there were a few surprises in the final overall placings in consequence. Thanks go to our hosts, White Horse Harriers, for all their hard work in organising a perfect event.

Mervyn Collins, whose Oxford Mail column has given excellent coverage to the league over the season, presented the trophies. The slow thinking results service failed to spot that Elizabeth Gottwald of Abingdon with her excellent second placing at Ardington qualified for share of the under 13 third place trophy, and that L.Martin of Cirencester won the third place junior men's trophy. These trophies will be sent on for presentation in their clubs.

The pictures tell some of the story of the conclusion of another successful season for the league, and the statistics on page 6 record the small but steady increase in participation which has been sustained over the last four seasons.

Oxford City's Angela Briscoe (right) and Sandra Wolanski (left) wrapped up the ladies vet 35 contest with overall first and second place respectively.

Some of the victorious Woodstock team members surround team captain, Mike Shipway with the shield. On his left Dave Ashton holds his third place overall trophy, a notable performance after one year's competitive running. On Mike's right is Mike Hurd with the over 50 first place trophy and Mike's son, Richard, with the fourth place senior trophy. Woodstock were promoted at the beginning of this season having rejoined the league in division 2 last season.

Neil Flynn (Bic) beats Tom Austin (Oxf), but Tom won overall.
