cross country league

Kirtlington Park provided its usual flat but muddy courses for the final event of the season. Thanks to careful preparations of organisers, Bicester AC, everything proceeded very smoothly. There was, however a report from a marshal of two unidentified men near the back failing to undertake the third lap of the big field. One of these, in 80th position, was identified by his club and withdrawn from the results. The other has not been identified and it seems probable that he did not go through the finishing funnel. Checking this, together with the drama of a close finish in the men's overall teams positions slightly delayed the start of the awards ceremony.

Thank you to Mervyn Collins from our sponsors, the Oxford Mail, for handing out the glittering array of trophies.

On the left is Kit Villiers, League Coordinator, who acted as MC, a task previously undertaken by the late Andy Reading. Here Marcia Reading presents the men's team trophy which now bears the inscription, "Oxfordshire Cross Country League Senior Men Champions presented in memory of Andy Reading from 1998."

In the biggest upset of the season, Headington's consistent turnout was rewarded as Oxford City and Woodstock faltered with depleted teams. This was partly due to clashes when Kirtlington was delayed a week, following a changed national fixture. White Horse showed their quality with a team score of 91, the lowest of any club this season, but they failed by just 4 points to catch Headington. Here are some of the Headington team in their moment of glory, from the left: Trevor Witts, Will Murray-Jones, Jethro Lennox with the trophy, Fennel Aurora, Malcolm Bayer, and in front: Elmar Kraus and John Giffiths.
